

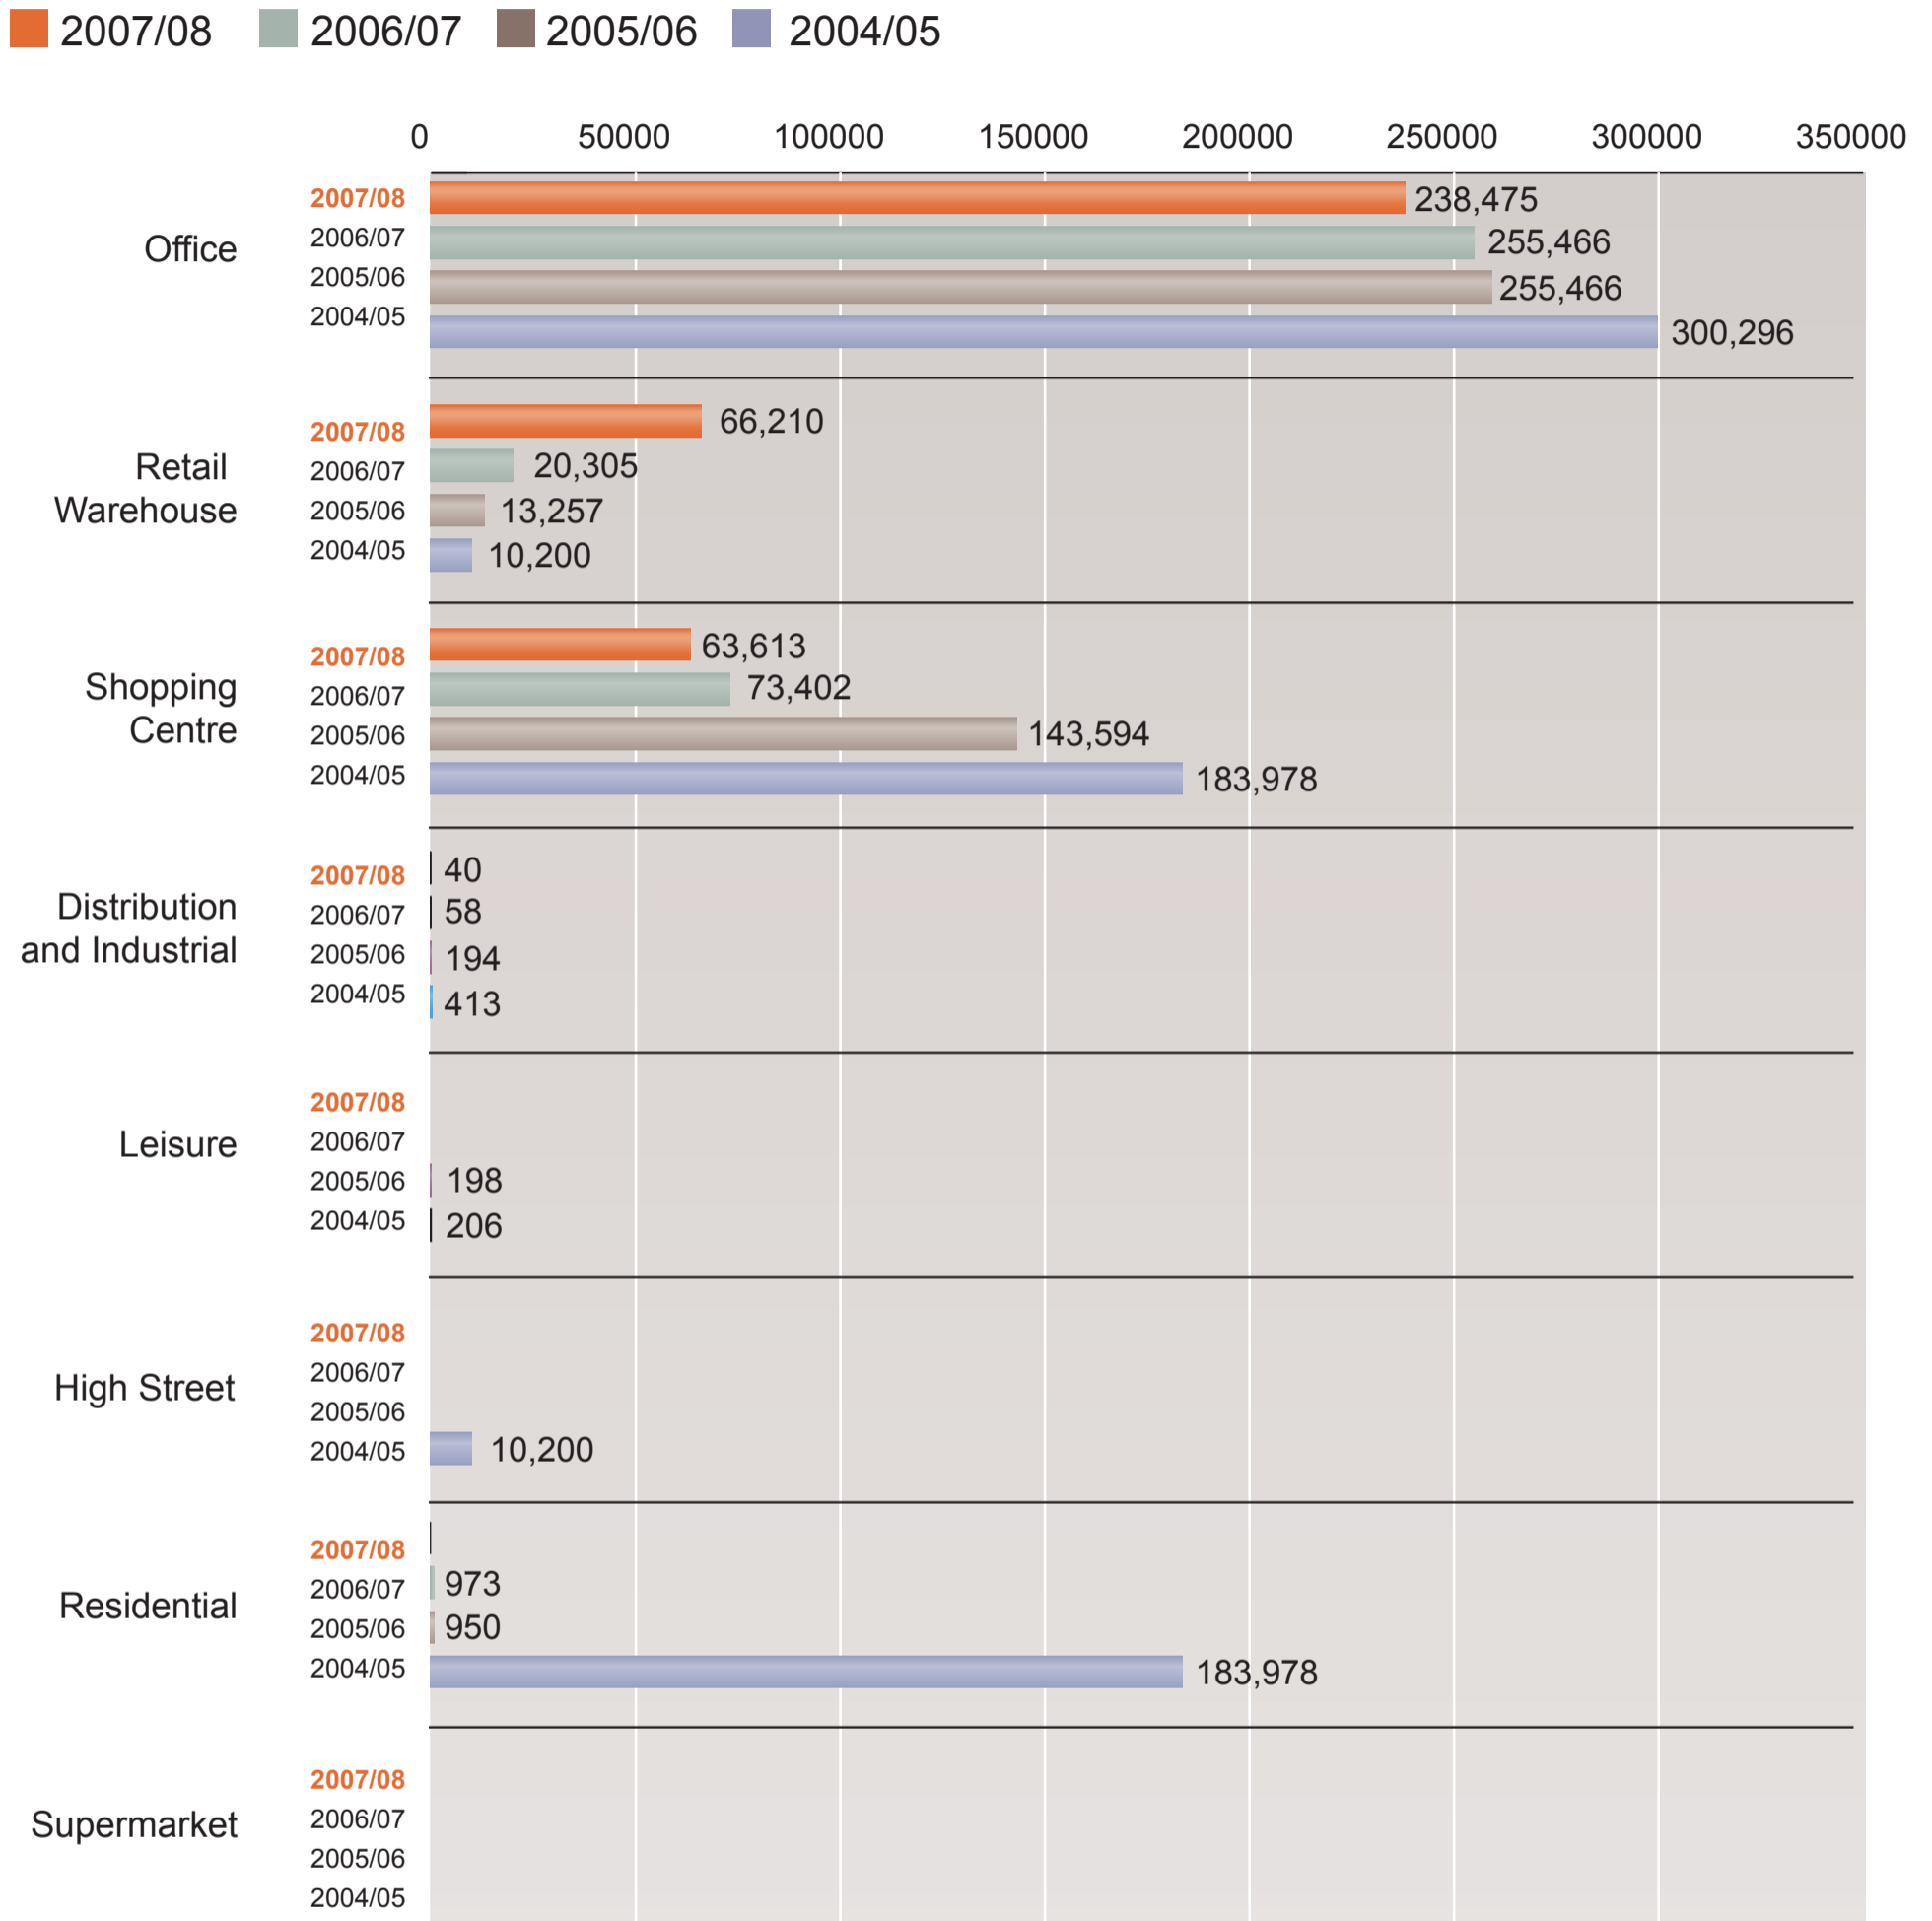

Figure 8: Total water use per property type (m³)

In line with previous years we have accounted for the energy use, carbon emissions and water use in the common parts of the majority of our managed multi-let buildings, which are the areas where, as landlord, we control usage and can directly effect improvements.